

EMERGENCY AND DISASTER MANAGEMENT

Degree Type: Bachelor's Degree

Also Offered Fully Online

With every passing year, we see more of the unexpected effects of climate change. Natural disasters like flooding, wildfires, and hurricanes happen with increasing frequency. We've also seen a rise in some human-made emergencies: aging infrastructure, mass shootings, and terrorism have all created an urgent need for well-trained, highly skilled emergency managers.

With a Bachelor of Science (BS) in Emergency and Disaster Management from Monroe's School of Criminal and Social Justice, you can be the one coordinating the efforts to help communities get back on their feet. From planning and mitigation to response and recovery, our Bachelor's Degree in Emergency and Disaster Management takes an all-hazards approach. That means you'll develop the critical leadership and problem-solving skills you'll need to take the lead in times of crisis. In the process, you'll prepare yourself for a growing, fulfilling career.
