Physician's Certification of Medical Eligibility for Federal Student Aid

Student Name: _____

Student ID: _____

Instructions to the Physician:

The student listed above previously had federal student loans discharged due to a total and permanent disability determination. The student is now applying for a new federal student loan. Federal regulations require a licensed physician (M.D. or D.O.) to certify that the student's condition has improved enough to enable them to engage in "substantial gainful activity."

- Substantial Gainful Activity is defined by the U.S. Department of Education as the ability to work and earn money, or to attend school with the intent to work and earn money, in a full-time or part-time capacity.

Physician's Certification (To be completed by a licensed Doctor of Medicine or Doctor of Osteopathy only)

I certify that in my professional medical opinion, the student named above is capable of engaging in substantial gainful activity, as defined above.
